

PRESS RELEASE

October 10, 2018

The Chicago Chapter of the National Black Nurses' Association, Alpha Eta Chapter of Chi Eta Phi Sorority, Inc., Beta Mu Chapter of Lambda Pi Alpha Sorority, and Provident Hospital Nurse' Alumni will celebrate their 31th Annual National Black Nurses' Day Awards Celebration on Friday, February 22, 2019 at the Apostolic Faith Church, 3823 S. Indiana, Chicago, IL at 6:00pm.

The celebration will recognize outstanding African American LPNs and RNs working in the areas of transplantation and dialysis.

If you know of an outstanding Black nurse who specializes in the above area, the National Black Nurses Day Committee invites you to recommend that person to be honored, at our 31st Anniversary Celebration. Friends, family, nursing students, nursing colleague and the community at large are all invited to attend this event. All supportive documents for the Nurse honoree must be received by January 11, 2019.

Candidate must submit:

1. A professional resume.
2. A one page narrative, describing some of the highlights of his/her nursing career, (personal pertinent patient outcomes should be indicated in the candidate's personal statement if applicable).
3. Two letters of professional recommendations.

All additional information i.e. vendors, ad book can also be located at the National Black Nurses Association Chicago Chapter website: <http://chicagochapternbna.org>

Your assistance is needed in advertising this event. Kindly post this letter in a highly visible area that's frequented by your nursing staff, student body and faculty.

Candidate documents are to be mailed to:
