Dear Nurse Colleague:

The Chicago Chapter of the National Black Nurses' Association, Alpha Eta Chapter of Chi Eta Phi Sorority, Inc., and the Beta Mu Chapter of Lambda Pi Alpha Sorority will celebrate their 35th Annual National Black Nurses' Day Celebration on Friday, February 24, 2023, at the Apostolic Faith Church, 3823 S. Indiana, Chicago, IL at 6:00 pm.

The celebration will recognize outstanding African American LPNs and RNs working in the areas of Maternal Health and Mental Health Care.

If you know of an outstanding Black nurse who specializes in any of the above areas the National Black Nurses Day Committee invites you to recommend that person to be honored, at our 35th Anniversary Celebration. Friends, family, nursing students, nursing colleagues, and the community are invited to attend this event. All supportive documents for the nurse honoree must be received by January 15, 2023.

Candidate must submit:

1. A professional resume;
2. A one-page narrative, describing some of the highlights of his/her nursing career, (personal pertinent patient outcomes should be indicated in the candidate's personal statement if applicable) and,
3. Two letters of professional recommendation.

All honorees will have the option to purchase a congratulatory advertisement to be included in the Souvenir Brochure. Your assistance is needed in advertising this event.

Kindly post this letter in a highly visible area that's frequented by your nursing staff, student body, and/or faculty.

Candidates may email documents to: rnccnbna@gmail.com

The documents may also be mailed to:
